

We like our telephone privacy law. Please don't implement any law that would lessen its' effectiveness. I am finally able to relax in the evening when I get home from work, instead of answering telemarketing calls. I used to leave my answering machine on, but don't have to now. I am also not rude anymore to the few callers I do get.

Thank you,
Judy Hinsey